

FERMOD®

Technical Description

FERMOFLEX

PVC STRIP CURTAINS

FERMOFLEX PVC strip curtains are suitable for a wide range of applications including cold rooms, hygiene areas, and noise or light sensitive environments.

Complying with the HACCP program, the FERMOFLEX strip curtain allows to:

- Minimise the temperature variations
- Increase the lifetime of the refrigeration components
- Save energy
- Helps prevent ice formation in negative temperatures and therefore improve Health & Safety

4 Standard models:

2610 FIXED STRIP CURTAIN

Supplied with standard length mounting header for strips 190 x 2 mm
Profile, elements of profile and accessories manufactured in composite
Choice of 40 or 80% overlap of strips

2600 FIXED STRIP CURTAIN

Supplied with standard length mounting header
For strips 190 x 2 mm with choice of 40 or 80% overlap of strips
For strips 300 x 3 mm with choice of 50 or 75% overlap of strips
Profile and elements of profile manufactured in Aluminium

2700 SWINGING STRIP CURTAIN

Swinging in both directions, to ease access and to increase the durability of the strips
Supplied to suit the clear opening
Strips 190 x 2 mm or 300 x 3 mm with choice of temperature range
Overlap according to strip width

DO IT YOUR SELF STRIP CURTAIN

Header supplied in standard lengths + accessories
Profile and elements of profile manufactured in Aluminium or Composite
Strips 190 x 2 mm or 300 x 3 mm with choice of overlap

STRIP FEATURES

Standard quality for positive temperature – 10° to + 50 °C
Low temperature quality + 10° to – 40°C

All strips are available in bespoke lengths and 50 m rolls.

On request:

Thickness 4 mm for strips 190 mm & 300 mm

Option :

Sliding curtains.